

Winemaker For A Day, Matahiwi Estate, North Wairarapa – Saturday June 4th, 2011

The day will begin with a personal introductory winemaking tutorial by award winning winemaker Jane Cooper. Guests will be given samples of estate produced Pinot Noir which you will blend to produce your own unique bottle of Wairarapa Pinot Noir.

Chef, Kent Baddeley, from the exclusive Parehua Estate in Martinborough, will delight you in an exquisite lunch matched with a range of Matahiwi wines.

It's Queen's Birthday so why not make a long weekend of it. One of New Zealand's top food and wine destinations offering some of the country's premium wines with everything from country cooking to fine cuisine in the many cafes, vineyards and restaurants – the Wairarapa is a true escape! Small towns full of character, three major forest parks and a wild stretch of coast it offers endless possibilities for outdoor adventures or just getting away from it all.
